

2016/17 AUSTRALIAN CRICKET SEASON: CHANNEL NINE COMMENTARY BINGO!

Chappelli bemoans a "ridiculous field placing"	Michael Slater does his annoying "double chuckle" after hearing a one-liner or quip	Warney says "Straya"	James Brayshaw says "big/huge/massive levers" and "access" in the one sentence whilst describing a big hit
Mark Taylor makes "Fujitsu" or "air conditioner" reference	"Let's all piss ourselves laughing watching Warney get out on 99 against New Zealand"	Ian Healy does his Bill Lawry "Weeendy!" impersonation whenever a pigeon is spotted	"Let's all piss ourselves laughing about Warney being good with text messages when showing the Classic Catches SMS voteline numbers"
Chappelli says "I'd want to be standing a long way away from Dennis Lillee before I did/said that!"	Mark Taylor says "That's a 'must-watch' in my household" when reading a TV show promo	Mark Nicholas is caught admiring himself on-screen during the on-field segment before play	Mark Taylor does his "chew for chweny chew" Richie impersonation at the end of an over
An early, ungainly and costly Glenn Maxwell dismissal is excused with "well....that's the way he plays. When it comes off, it's phenomenal/brilliant/match-winning!"	"Let's all piss ourselves laughing watching Tubby or Slat's being run out whilst batting together "	James Brayshaw deals exclusively in nicknames: "Finchy", "Davey" (Warner), "Maxy" (Maxwell), "Jimmy" (Faulkner) and "Wadey" - during the T20I coverage	Ian Healy half-jokingly says "Oooh, don't say THAAAT" when a commentator states that an Australian is batting well and looks untroubled
